AUTHORIZATION

I authorize the release of the records described above. This authorization expires one year from the date signed unless a different date is written here, and I may revoke it in writing at any time (revocation does not undo releases already made). Records released to the recipient may no longer be protected by federal privacy rules. I may decline to sign this form without affecting my treatment. A reasonable copying fee may apply as allowed by Illinois law.

Expiration other than one year (optional)
